SUBJECT: Human Rights Case of Mario Roger JULIEN Cáceres, wife and 2 children

On January 15, Mrs. María Angélica Cáceres de Julien, mother of Mario Roger, visited the Embassy to ask if we could help her to find out where her son and daughter-in-law are. They disappeared in B.A. in September 1976. Also his two children disappeared, but they were found in Valparaíso, Chile, in a square, Plaza O'Higgins, on December 23, 1976. A very nice childless couple asked to adopt the children, and they have been living with that couple since that date; they have not been able to adopt them legally because of the lack of papers. This was published in B.A. Herald on August 1, 1976.

Mrs. Julien, the grandmother, visited them in Chile and found them very well, very healthy and very happy with their new parents. They did not recognize their grandmother. She obtained the legal right to have them with her, but she does not know what to do. If their parents would come back they would like to keep the children. She brought pictures of them and they are beautiful.

Her daughter-in-law, whose name is Victoria Grisonas, is the daughter of former Chargé d'Affaires of Lithuania in Uruguay.

Grandmother is afraid they have been killed, but she heard a story of some corporal hearing noises in the basement of a jail (I guess Libertad, but I am not sure) and that he saw people in a terrible condition hiding there.

She also showed me letters she received from the President of France, the Pope and other personalities.

She said to me: "Please help me to find my son and my daughter-in-law."
